Ever After: A Gay Fairy Tale is an enjoyable to read m/m romance. A forbidden romance between Prince Merrick, who is expected to get married and produce an heir, and his Valet Cassius. Bit of a slow burn romance, which I didn't find to be overly angsty at all.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Ever After: A Gay Fairy Tale

This is one of the first gay fairytale retellings I read, and one I return to over and over. You can probably tell it's a take on Rapunzel, but a very unique one. The story is creative and wonderful and I love the characters and how they find their way to their Happily Ever After. Highly recommended if you're looking for a sexy, sweet read.

Fairies are magical creatures made of magic. All fairies have wings, the wings vary depending on the fairy. According to Faybelle, fairy hearts are smaller than human hearts, and beat with a rhythm powered by magic. Fairies never lose their ability to fly, unless they are extremely ill. Dark fairies may have superior immune systems due to centuries of dealing with dark magic which has made ...
